

Coming of Age in the Shadow of the Holocaust

Coming of Age in the Shadow of the Holocaust is a deeply moving and unforgettable memoir that tells the story of a young woman's coming-of-age amidst the horrors of the Holocaust. Esther Safran Foer was born in Poland in 1930, and her childhood was filled with love and laughter. But everything changed in 1939, when the Nazis invaded Poland and began to systematically exterminate the Jewish population.

Esther and her family were forced to flee their home and live in hiding. They were constantly in fear of being discovered and killed, and they witnessed firsthand the horrors of the Holocaust. Esther's father was murdered by the Nazis, and her mother died of typhus. Esther herself was eventually liberated from a concentration camp, but she was forever scarred by the experience.
