

Final Draft: The Collected Work of David Carr

David Carr was one of the most influential and respected media critics of our time. A Pulitzer Prize winner and former media columnist for The New York Times, Carr was known for his incisive wit, his deep understanding of the news industry, and his passionate belief in the importance of journalism.

Final Draft is a comprehensive collection of Carr's most essential work. Drawn from his columns for The New York Times and The Atlantic, as well as from his longform journalism and public lectures, Final Draft offers a sweeping overview of Carr's career and his profound impact on the media landscape.
