In the beloved children's book, Franklin Halloween Classic, join Franklin the Turtle and his friends as they embark on a thrilling Halloween adventure that will leave young readers giggling and shivering with delight.

With its vibrant illustrations by renowned artist Brenda Clark and a heartwarming story by Paulette Bourgeois, Franklin Halloween Classic has become a timeless tale that has captivated generations of children.

A Halloween Adventure with Franklin and Friends

As Franklin and his friends, Bear, Rabbit, Fox, Beaver, and Badger, prepare for the annual Halloween party, excitement fills the air. They don their most creative costumes, from a furry brown bear to a hopping pink bunny, and set off into the night.

Along the way, they encounter friendly ghosts, mischievous goblins, and even a sly Dracula. But Franklin and his friends are not afraid. They know that Halloween is a time for laughter, joy, and celebrating the magic of the season.

A Spine-Tingling Twist

As the children continue their adventure, they stumble upon an old, abandoned house. Curiosity gets the better of them, and they cautiously approach, their hearts pounding with a mixture of excitement and trepidation.

Inside the dimly lit house, they find a dusty old book filled with spooky tales. Franklin and his friends gather around, their eyes wide with wonder and anticipation. As they delve into the stories, the house begins to creak and groan, and the air grows heavy with... something unseen.

A Lesson in Courage and Friendship

As the children read the spine-tingling tales, they learn the importance of courage and friendship. They discover that even when faced with fear, they can overcome any obstacle by working together.

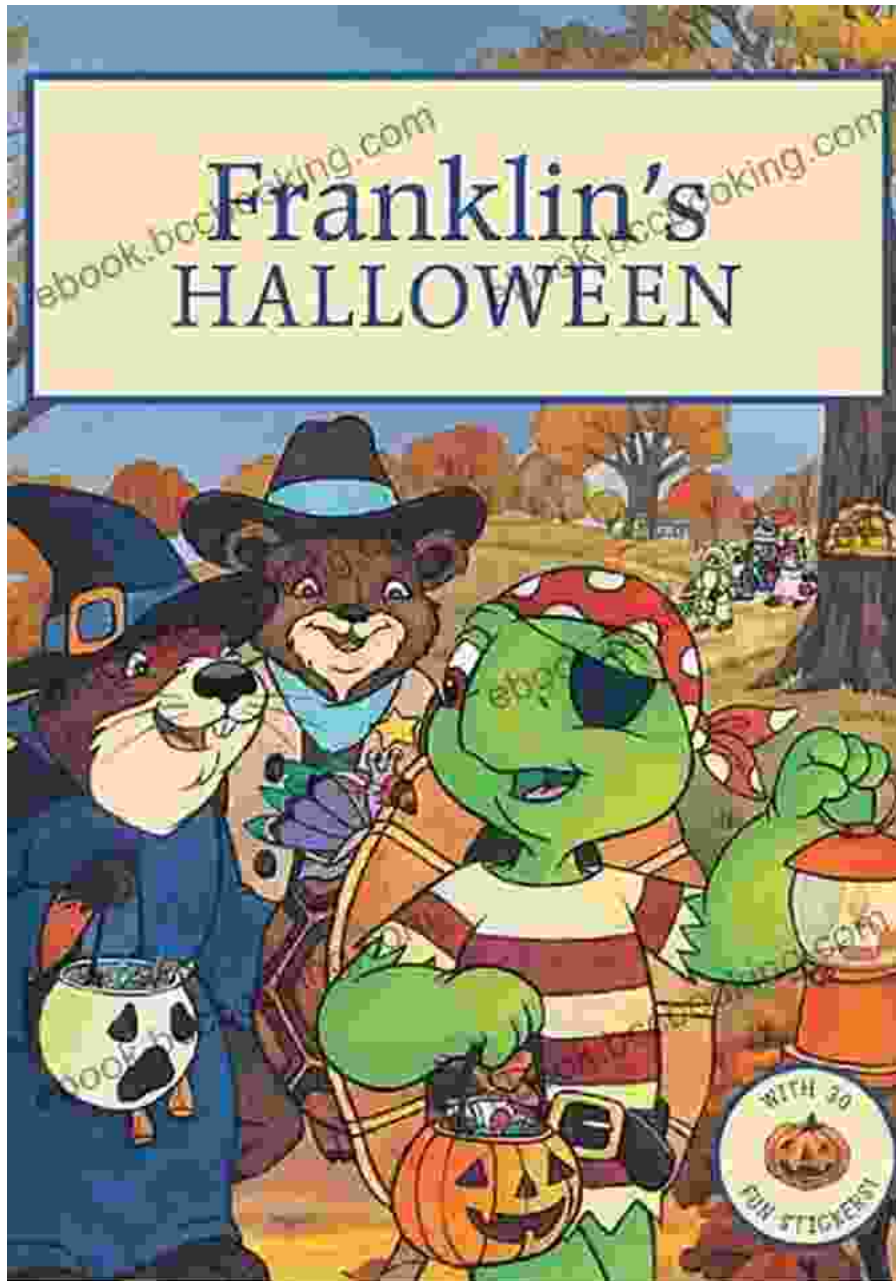

Through their Halloween adventure, Franklin and his friends prove that Halloween is not just about costumes and candy. It's a time to embrace the magic of imagination, celebrate the bonds of friendship, and learn valuable life lessons that will stay with them long after the pumpkins have been carved and the decorations have been put away.
