National Geographic Readers: Buzz Aldrin L3: The First Man to Walk on the Moon is a Level 3 Reader that tells the story of Buzz Aldrin, the second man to walk on the moon. The book is full of beautiful photographs and illustrations, and it's written in a clear and concise style that's perfect for young readers.

The book begins with Buzz Aldrin's childhood. He was born in 1930 in Montclair, New Jersey. He was always fascinated by space and dreamed of becoming an astronaut. After graduating from high school, he attended the United States Military Academy at West Point. He graduated in 1951 and then served in the United States Air Force. In 1963, he was selected to be an astronaut.

In 1969, Buzz Aldrin was part of the Apollo 11 mission to the moon. He and Neil Armstrong were the first two humans to walk on the moon. They spent about two hours outside the lunar module, collecting samples and taking photographs. Buzz Aldrin's famous words when he first stepped on the moon were, "Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful! Magnificent desolation!"

Buzz Aldrin's story is an inspiring one. He was a pioneer in space exploration, and he helped to make history. National Geographic Readers:
